Activities

Thai food, by its very nature, is fresh and quick. The cuisine at times is very complex, at times very simple; yet always it combines a balance of flavors that excites the senses.

Cooking Class

La Flora Resort Patong Cooking Class emphasizes simplicity, in fact, we have simplified simplicity. Our dishes are based on traditional Thai cuisine adapted to a modern, fast paced world – quick, simple and always delicious. You can enjoy our dishes on any occasion. Next door to the Current of the Sea Restaurant are the cooking class workstations. The friendly, yet professional 'hands-on' cooking class is conducted at comfortable workstations – daily at 14.00pm. The Class is intimate and allows you to taste, create and explore.

DINING AT LA FLORA

La Flora Resort Patong offers a wide range of cuisine options and an outstanding wine list of over 130 tables to satisfy the cravings of Phuket residents, Patong visitors and resort guests alike – who wish to combine exceptional food with an incomparable setting.

The cuisine highlight is Seafood Fusion under the direction of our renowned Executive Chef, who oversees the Current of the Sea, the Surface, room service for hotel guests, banquet service for small meetings, incentive groups and special events, and in house cooking classes.

The Current Of The Sea – A Signature Restaurant

The restaurant is a stirring new venue for smart elegant dining and drinks. You can choose to spoil yourself at one of three locations; beside the pool, on the rooftop verandah or the air conditioned dining room.

The cuisine features the finest international and royal Thai cuisine. The menu includes succulent seafood dishes and an extensive wine list comprising both old and new world labels.

The Surface Restaurant & Bar – A True Ocean View The Gem Of Patong

The dramatic Surface Bar is located on the roof top overlooking Patong Bay. Partake in a wide selection of cocktails, wines, snacks and refreshments. Breathtaking early evening sunsets should not be missed while sipping your favorite sundowner. Live music is played by a duo in the modern lounge bar.

MEETINGS OVERVIEW

Perfect for meetings, incentive group events

La Flora Resort Patong provides a meeting room with a square shaped 15 seat board-room table. Full meeting facilities are available for your small tailor-made meeting. Outdoor space – either poolside or at the rooftop Surface Bar – provides an ideal setting for your group dinner or other special private events. Included is a breathtaking view over Patong bay. There is a wide array of dining options, including banquet facilities. The signature restaurant, the Current of the Sea and the distinctive Surface Bar, invite you to experience a special event like no other, in a venue like no other.

WEDDINGS

As a premier lifestyle destination, the resort is a dream location for a marriage. A selection of wedding packages and options are available to fit personal requirements with gourmet cuisine and wine and relaxing spa treatments. Either Western style or Buddhist style weddings are available on the roof top (with a spectacular romantic view), pool side or even on the beach to ensure a marriage made in heaven.

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

Ideally set at the nexus of culture, dining and outdoor action on the south west of the island, the resort gives visitors a prime starting point from which to discover and enjoy an exceptional range of experiences both onsite and off. This terrain is meant for outdoor discovery and intense exploration as all major attractions are within a short distance.

Golf

There are two of high standard golf courses in few minutes drive from Patong while premium golf courses are far away, up north of the Island, the oldest Phuket Country Club or the truly dramatic 160 acres Loch Palm Country Club with its sister Red Mountain Golf Course are great choices for a golf holiday, within 15 minute drive from Patong.

Bangla Road At Night

Bangla Road is famous for its raunchy nightlife – awakening when the sun sets. Bangla becomes the liveliest party spot – be ready for action!

Boardroom

Thai Boxing (Muay Thai)

The fascinating to watch Muay Thai is the ancient art of Thai boxing involving every part of the body. The fighters are well-trained martial arts experts. Real fights take place at the stadium in Patong beach almost every night.

Water Sports

If you like water sports, then this is the place during the green season. Patong Beach is ideal for water skiing – boats and equipment are available for rent from speedboat operators. There is also jet-skiing, windsurfing, sailing, or parasailing. You can also snorkel on the reef at the southern end of the bay or take a long tail boat round to Freedom beach for better coral viewing.

NEARBY ATTRACTIONS

Phromthep Cape

At the southern tip of the island, the Cape has a lighthouse that commands spectacular views over the east and southeast of the island and its environs. Some visitors make the rather demanding trek down to the end of the Cape but most simply stay at the viewing site and observe the sunset.

Old Phuket Town

The streets of Old Phuket Town are lined with 100-year-old charming Sino Portuguese shop houses that are home to restaurants, guesthouses, printing offices, gold shops, art galleries, coffee shops, and personal residences.

Chalong Big Buddha

The white marble Big Buddha stands on the top of the Nakkerd Hills and looks down over Chalong, Kata and Rawai. It is visible from most of the south of Phuket.

Wat Chalong Temple

Phuket Fantasea Show

Wat Chalong Temple

The temple is one of Phuket's most important temples and is visited by thousands each year. It is beautifully decorated with infinite reflections from hundreds of tiny glass pieces and several pagodas.

Phuket Fantasea Show

The award-winning themed park is wacky but fun and very professionally done. Phuket FantaSea bills itself as the ultimate cultural theme park combining Thai traditional myths with humor, fantasy and a loose plotline that keeps getting more and more amusing.
